

Receive a cordial invitation to our Fourteenth World Pepper Convention to be held on October 26, 27 and 28 of this year in the City of Aguascalientes Mexico. The event is organized annually by the National Council Chile Producers.

The Convention is a forum and a great interest point for the general public and the chiles scientific, commercial, agricultural and industrial community in Mexico and other countries that share technical, commercial and cultural subjects interest.

The event includes, among other things, conferences, discussion tables, a trade show and field exhibitions, as well as social, cultural and gastronomic activities, all in the context of this traditional and historically Mexican product: chile.

There is also an exhibition of commercial supplies, an exhibition of research posters and the "Mexico Picante" exhibition which includes a stand selling products and by-products both food and non-food related to chile, as well as a varieties demonstration, seeds and culinary uses, gastronomic contests as well as a painting exhibition.

During the event are also considered socio-cultural activities within the framework of the traditional Festival de Calaveras that is celebrated next to the Convention enter on the Isla San Marcos.

The net enrollment cost is MXN$1,392.00. The bank data to make deposits of inscription are the following:

- Consejo Nacional de Productores de Chiles SC
- Banco: BBV Bancomer
- Cuenta: 0169937854
- CLABE: 012010001699378544

Online registration is done through the following link:

- www.ingresaweb.com/evento/WPC2017

The hotel information will be available through the following page:

- wpc.ceaa.org.mx

We will be sending updated information through the following page:

- www.facebook.com/convenciondelchile/

Thanking you for your kind attention and hoping to receive you in this important event, we reiterate to your orders.

Sincerely Organizing Committee

14th World Pepper Convention